

Our media has become homogenized and commercialized by the mass ownership of many outlets by few owners. The airwaves particularly are owned by the citizens but exploited by the few. Please limit the ownership of media and encourage diversity. Let low power radio flourish with limited regulation and discourage monopolization.